OFFICIAL NOTICE FROM THE

NORTH POLE

• Department of Elf Magic & Well-Deserved Breaks •

Dear Little Friend,

You may have noticed that your elf didn't move last night. Don't worry! Nothing is wrong!

Your elf has been working VERY hard spreading Christmas cheer, keeping an eye on things, and reporting back to me at the North Pole.

Even magical elves need a little rest!

That's why I have personally decided to turn off your elf's magic for one night so your little friend can enjoy a well-deserved break.

There's nothing you need to do. Your elf isn't in trouble, and neither are you!

After a good rest, I'll turn the magic back on, and your elf will be ready for more Christmas adventures.

Thank you for taking such good care of my little helper!

ELF REST AUTHORIZATION
